BRAVES' SPURT CARRIES 'EM UP EVEN WITH THE DODGERS

Now, Either of Runners Up May Contest Final Issue With Phillies; Ames Steals Some Thunder From G. C. Alexander.

By LYLE ABBOTT

The outstanding fact of yesterday's half portion of major league baseball was the over-riding of Brooklyn by Boston, who had been regarded as a team that had "abandoned hope, all ye who enter here."

Now, apparently, the Braves have as much show to win the National League pennant as a pennant-winning team, which is some hope, but not much more. Philadelphia did itself no lasting good by dividing its double bill with St. Louis. But the pastime over in the Missouri town afforded Ames a chance to steal a mile of Alexander's thunder.

Oakland has played one more game than any other Coast League team, and has not profited by it. Lucky is the guy whose team butts into rainy weather, apparently.

We asked a high school footballer why they didn't practice on the Park street ground. He said, "I dunno, but I heard Gerry racing over them darn farm advisors and agricultural experiment boys about it."

Puzzled at this apparently inconsistent reply, we let it go at that, until one day we rode our bike across said open space. Then we knew, for with many a swear, we plucked our tires, as a butcher boy plucks a fowl.

The answer is:

BULL-THORNS!

University of Arizona will play some right smart football games this year, according to the following of rival schedule issued by Coach McKillop.

October 2, Douglas Y. M. C. A. at Tucson.
October 9, Tempe Normal School at Tucson.

GILMORE PUTS IT ON COMISH

Federal League President Challenges Organized Ball to a Round After World Series is Played Off Early Next Month.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Federal league, through President Gilmore, addressed a challenge to the National baseball commission for participation in the world's series this fall.

He suggests a series between the winner of the Federal league pennant and the winner of the series between the National and American league contenders.

LOUIS HART HEADS JUNIORS FOR YEAR

Louis Hart is to guide the destinies of the Junior class in the high school—the first class to announce its organization for the semester.

Hart was elected president at the first meeting of the class, and the rest of the officers are:

Eddie McDonald, vice-president.
Dorothy Hult, secretary.
Lewis Irving, treasurer.
Lester Bonar, sergeant-at-arms.
Robert Armstrong, yell leader.

At the next meeting the class will vote on a class advisor, to be selected from among the instructors.

SPORT NOTES

The first hunt races of the season are set for today at Belmont Park Terminal, on Long Island, under the United Hunt colors. Six races are on the card.

Ad Wolgast is matched to box Leach across in New York next Friday night and to meet Kid Thomas in Philadelphia the following Monday.

The curtain raiser at the new Sheepshead Bay speedway will be an auto parade from New York to the track. The two-mile course is in great shape for the tryouts.

The stake races at the exposition track at San Francisco will wind up today with the San Francisco handicap for three-year-olds and upward, one mile.

The boxing fans have their eye on Denver, where Charlie White is billed to go twenty rounds with Freddie Welsh, a week from Monday. White has been showing well and will give the champ a lot of trouble, according to eastern opinion.

Billiards comes strong into the sport arena next week, when the three cushion inter-city league gets under way. The matches will continue into next May, and over 600 games will be played.

SPEEDWAY MEN BUY FOUR MAXWELL RACERS

Fisher and Allison Secure Cars Which Parent Manufacturers Had Withdrawn

DETROIT, Sept. 19.—An increased zest is sure to be given the fall and winter events of the motor racing circuit by the return to competition of the four Maxwell cars that were campaigned with such success during the early summer by the Maxwell motor Co. Inc. of Detroit.

All four of these cars have been sold to Carl Fisher and James Allison, managing owners of the Indianapolis speedway and prominent automobile accessory manufacturers. The purchase price was in excess of $25,000, and the arrangement retains the advisory services of Ray Harroun, chief engineer of the Maxwell Co. and former world's race champion. Negotiations are in progress to secure Eddie Rickenbacker, the former Maxwell star, to act as team captain.

COAST LEAGUE

Vernon 6; Portland 3.
Oakland 3-1; San Francisco 0-5.

STRONGER THAN OPIUM

Maribana, a narcotic derived from the Mexican hemp, is stronger than opium and corresponds to the hashish of the Far East. A horticulturist recently found the plants in large numbers growing in a San Antonio cattle corral.

FOOTBALL PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHTER THAN USUAL AT YALE

Yale coaches regard the football outlook as the most encouraging which any captain has faced since Yale defeated both Harvard and Princeton. This was in the season of 1909, under Ted Coy. There is remarkable backfield material in the veterans, Captain Aleck Wilson, Harry Le Gore, Otis Guernsey, Mal Scovil, Billy Easton and "Eddie" Waite. "Bunny" Burgess, the hockey team captain, who was half back two years ago, and Malcolm, substitute halfback last fall, with "Bev" Thompson, Bingham and Hutchinson, halfbacks of the freshman eleven last fall, are other candidates.

GRAVES WINS DETROIT MOTORBIKE CENTURY

DETROIT, Sept. 19.—Martin Graves of Denver, won the hundred mile motorcycle race at the state fair grounds today, setting what is claimed to be a world's record of one hour, twenty-four minutes and forty-one seconds.

COYOTES GATHER FOR HEARING OF "RIOTERS"

Chief Receives Big Delegation: Initiators Remind One of Guy Wilky's Experience

Possibly three hundred high school boys acted as mourners at the appearance of five high school boys before Chief of Police Brishols Saturday afternoon. The city hall was fairly packed with 'em. Long before it was time for the five lads to appear, they were on the ground, apparently anxious to experience the new thrill of school life.

Saturday being a half holiday, there was no police cost, and possibly the chief knew this when he told the boys to appear late in the afternoon. Their prank was one of a series of pants-tearing clashes between the seniors and juniors, who are apparently trying to outdo the sophs and freshmen in devilishness.

The hair-clipping and pants-tearing practices are reminiscent of an incident that occurred when the Phoenix high school was concentrated in one building, and wasn't near so big and important as it is now.

Guy Wilky, now camera man with Bombside Fielding, was a senior that year, and to him it was all important that Guy Wilky should be recognized as SOME Guy. No social function was complete without him. He took a huge part in school life, and realizing it, never failed to take large robes of credit to himself. Note this is a falling common to all chaps, who are dubbed "leaders of the school."

On the night of the senior banquet to the junior class, Guy got him a girl, a dress suit and a hard boiled shirt. Grandly, almost pompously, he strolled down Adams street to the hotel of that name, where class festivities were usually held. As he turned into the entrance, some fellows drove up in an automobile and called him. He excused himself and crossed the side-

DEPENDS ON THE PERSON

In the lobby of a hotel they were speaking about speed, friends.

One afternoon Jones was rambling along the boulevard when he ran across Friend Smith. Handshake and then some talk, which included the war, the weather and motor cars, recollectively, "I hear that you have been buying a machine."

"Yes," proudly admitted Jones, "I brought her home about two weeks ago."

"Some speed, of course," returned Friend Smith. "How fast can the machine go?"

"Well," answered Jones, with a smile that was half sad, "it depends altogether on who is timing it—myself or a country constable."

SO SHE HAD HEARD

A rector in South London was visiting one of his poorer parishioners, an old woman, afflicted with deafness. She expressed her great regret at not being able to hear his sermons. Desiring to be sympathetic, he said, "I will say something to you, but you must not mind me." He replied, with unnecessary self-depreciation: "You don't miss much." "So they tell me," was the disconcerting reply.
